Accessibilty, Diversity and Nondiscrimination

Accessibility is an organizational asset and a civil right. The Washington State Arts Commission complies with all local, state and federal laws and regulations concerning civil and human rights. Our programs, grants and employment practices are free of discrimination based on race, color, religion, national origin, age, gender or disability. In addition, WSAC is specifically committed to complying with the provisions of the Americans with Disabilities Act. The ADA requires that all programs, services and activities, when viewed in their entirety, are readily accessible to and usable by individuals with disabilities. WSAC strives for effective communication with individuals with speech, visual and hearing disabilities.

Materials are available in alternative formats upon request. Including people with disabilities in our definition of diversity is an integral part of the Washington State Arts Commission's strategic plan.

*For "how-to" assistance with issues of accessibility, diversity and non-discrimination, please contact:
Bitsy Bidwell, Community Arts Development Manager
360-586-2421 or bitsyb@arts.wa.gov*

*For questions or complaints regarding accessibility, please contact:
Kris Tucker, Executive Director and Sec. 504 Rehabilitation Act Coordinator:
360-753-3860 or krist@arts.wa.gov*

All information in this directory was supplied by the listed organizations in June/July 2005. The Washington State Arts Commission has done its best to report the information accurately, however, information changes rapidly in this field. For current information, please contact the organization directly. The purpose of this Directory is informational only; no endorsement of the listed organizations is implied.

Directory Requirements

In order to be a part of the Local Arts Agency Directory, organizations were required to meet at least two out of three of the criteria listed below.

- 1.) We have, as our principal purpose, the provision of planning, financial support, services, programs and development opportunities for arts organizations, artists and the public, in a community or communities during a major portion of the year.
- 2.) We involve, on a regular basis, activities, programs or services in more than one arts discipline (literary, media, performing and visual arts).
- 3.) We are not a single-purpose organization, such as a theater, dance company, visual arts league, museum, orchestra, art school, or music ensemble, nor are we solely an arts presenter.

Terms

Arts Service Organizations: These are primarily service providers, rather than artistic producers or presenters. They offer administrative support, technical assistance, financial assistance, or service to a variety of arts professionals and disciplines. They may promote arts education or access for a specific community, arts discipline, cultural/artistic heritage, or underserved population.

Arts Producing: The primary focus is the creation, production, performance or exhibition of works of art.

Arts Presenting: A presenter typically organizes, selects, curates and contracts for events during the year, (i.e., concerts, plays, films, performances or appearances by creative artists, or ensembles of artists). Rather than creating the artistic event, the presenter acts as a sponsor for a season of performances or events for the community, and is often responsible for managing or leasing the facility where the arts events take place.

Other Community Arts Councils and Commissions

All of the known LAA's of Washington State were contacted by email and/or phone for Directory information. We did not receive information from the following organizations, but are relatively sure they are alive and well.

During the year, if you become aware of arts councils or commissions not listed in this Directory, or of newly forming LAA's please contact the Washington State Arts Commission Community Arts Development Program at bitsyb@arts.wa.gov or (360)586-2421.

Community Arts Development (CAD) Program

The Community Arts Development (CAD) program provides opportunities and information about arts management to arts organizations and artists, so that they, in turn, can most effectively bring the arts to the public. CAD works to build the capacity of artists and organizations so that they are stable, continuous arts resources for their communities. CAD provides management information and assistance (sometimes called ‘technical assistance’ or TA) as well as guidance and encouragement. CAD works in partnership with local, regional, state and national organizations to provide these services. Arts organizations, artists, local arts councils and commissions, municipal governments and the general public make use of the program.

Mission:

Our mission is to encourage local artists' participation and promote community involvement in the visual, performing and literary arts in Ballard. We advocate making art a part of every day life in our neighborhood, for the benefit of our own community as well as greater Seattle.

Vision:

We envision Ballard as a center for the arts where people from the greater region come to participate in the visual, literary, and performing arts. Ballard would be known for its arts advocacy, a place where arts opportunities, education, and facilities are inclusive and accessible to all members of the community.

We value...

the contribution that artists make in our neighborhood; community participation in arts projects; arts projects that are enriching and thought provoking for those who create the projects as well as those who participate; the uniqueness of the Ballard neighborhood; creating an environment that is alive, hopeful, and inspiring; participation in arts education.

Our History:

Arts Ballard is a 501(c)(3) non-profit corporation that was formed in 1996 as a way to promote and encourage artistic expression in the Seattle neighborhood of Ballard. Since Arts Ballard's inception, Ballard has blossomed into one of Seattle's fastest growing arts communities. New galleries and boutiques, many along historic Ballard Avenue, showcase artwork and crafts from all over the region.

In the organization's brief history, Arts Ballard has been instrumental in a number of local projects. From grant writing and stewardship on various public art installations to input on neighborhood planning decisions, its members have helped make art a bigger part of the community. With a handful of committees, Arts Ballard has organized many art-related events and activities, including Arts Feast, a summer arts festival. They also helped expand and promote Ballard's Second Saturday Art Walks.

Note

We are all volunteers and have plans to keep growing and adding disciplines. For example, we would like to add music concerts, workshops and performing arts when we are able to fund such projects. We would also like to do a public art project similar to the “salmon art project” in Olympia to pull a “theme” together for our coastal town. In 2004, our organization purchased a beautiful piano for the public use in our Convention Center hoping to promote more musical events. We also sponsor a postcard series with artwork done by local artists and the finished product (13 new postcards this last year) are sold up and down the coastal area as part of our fundraising.

Our mission statement:

“The purpose of Associated Arts of Ocean Shores shall be to promote and organize the visual, literary and performing arts; to promote knowledge and inform the citizens of the area of these performing, literary and visual arts; to sponsor programs and activities to be undertaken to facilitate the arts in Ocean Shores; to lead and cooperate in the development of programs for the visual, literary and performing arts.”

Description	A limited budget and staff prohibits us from doing any official cultural planning process.
Note	We are a division of the Green River Community College Foundation. We serve both the college and the community. Our primary purpose is to promote life-long learning and appreciation for the arts. We do this in a variety of ways, not typical of municipal or most local arts agencies. Presently, we are working within the college structure to promote art classes within regular core Associate Degree Classes for the Project Teach Program at GRCC. We are also working on a way to provide a practicum for future teachers to be involved in our very successful art docent program as part of their training as future elementary and middle school teachers. Occasionally we have an opportunity to work internationally. We have exchanged children's art with Seigen, Germany, and children's music with Xalapa, Mexico. There is no established program to do this.

Note

The Northgate Arts council was formed in late 2004. We have plans for many future projects that will benefit the neighborhoods. Current contributors include the North Seattle Community College, Northgate Chamber of Commerce, the Northgate Artist-in-residence, several local artists, and a representative from each of five neighborhood community councils. Our mission is “to enhance our community identity through arts and culture” through the following goals:

- The Northgate Arts Council will serve as a resource for the communities that are in the overlay district of the Northgate Comprehensive Plan, including Haller Lake, Licton Springs, Maple Leaf, Pinehurst, Victory Heights, and the Northgate area.
- The Council will work with the business community, neighborhood groups, and artists to provide public art settings within our communities.
- The Council will heighten awareness of the importance of art in our lives and communities.

The Council will also provide opportunities to local and emerging artists.

Note

We are a small arts group consisting of 15 board members and 95 members, from which we use volunteers when needed. We give five $1000 scholarships to graduating high school students from the county, in each of 5 arts areas. We give grants of $300 - $500 to individual artists or groups to support their activities, events, or needs. We sponsor concerts, art exhibits, seminars, arts festivals for children, and tours to local museums or artisan studios.
